

-Ends-

Contact information

studio@fungandbedford.com

About Fung and Bedford

We are designers Angela Fung and Ashley Bedford. Working together since 2003, we have built a multi-disciplinary design practice where we explore the potential of folding through large-scale installations.

Challenging the traditions of origami, our projects investigate the possibilities of manipulating humble paper and metallics, transforming them into architectural origami - modern installations, vessel sculpture and art for homes, galleries and commercial spaces.

